

Our stories. Our history. Our heritage.

Please share some personal highlights or experiences while working with the International Harvester organization. In the latter years, it is well known that many dealers and corporate personnel made extraordinary efforts to enhance IH customer service, product performance, control costs and improve the financial health of the International Harvester Company. We encourage all IH folks to share a story about their Harvester experiences. Much was accomplished, and the intent of this program is to capture those stories for future generations.

You can type your story directly into this form, or attach it separately and email it to us at harvesterheritage@gmail.com. Please be sure to read our Terms & Conditions before submitting.
