

McCORMICK DIVISION.

INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER COMPANY
OF AMERICA.

7 MONROE STREET,

CHICAGO, U. S. A.

May 5th, 1903.

MCCORMICK.
CHAMPION.
DEERING.
MILWAUKEE.
PLANO.

Mr. John Dierking,
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Sir:-

We confirm herewith, our conversation with you of this A M. in regard to sending you to Europe, as an expert.

We desire you to take the S.S. Deutschland, sailing from New York on the 7th inst. for Hamburg and to report to our European Manager, W.V. Couchman, immediately upon your arrival, for further instructions.

It is agreed and understood, that you will carry out any orders Mr. Couchman, or any of our general agents in Europe, under whom you may be assigned to work, to the best of your ability and that you will be governed by their instructions, the same as you would be, were you employed by one of our general agents in this country.

For your entire time and best services, we agree to pay you $60.00 (Sixty dollars) per month and all necessary traveling expenses.

This agreement is written in duplicate and upon its acceptance will take effect, on and after this date.

Yours truly,

INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER COMPANY OF AMERICA
(McCORMICK DIVISION)

Accepted

John Dierking

By Wm C Mundt